GENERAL FORMATTING GUIDELINES FOR MANUSCRIPT TEXT

MAGAZINE BIOREFINERY SUSTAINABLE SOLUTIONS

The name of the authors should appear just below the title of the article. The title of the authors should be indexed to the names, using the number in over script, indicating in the footnote the formation and title obtained, followed by the position and the affiliation. You must list the Email after this data in the footnote.

Example: ¹ Agronomic Engineer, M.S., D.S. Professor of Rio Grande do Sul State University. E-mail: fernandoasantos7@gmail.com

Text formatting

The text should be written with as few bibliographic citations as possible.

- Word for Windows or Page Maker text editor.
- Times New Roman font.
- Double space.
- A4 size paper, on only one side of the paper.
- Font size 12.
- Margins of 2 cm.
- Justified.

It is suggested that the text should be from 05 to 10 pages. Text with more than 12 pages cannot be accepted. Articles should be enriched with various illustrations, photographs, charts, tables, etc. whenever possible.

Tables

It is recommended to use the term Table for all tabular presentations that provide textual information and/or statistical data. Tables should be numbered in Arabic numerals, and sequentially. The title, introduced by a hyphen, is written with an uppercase only in the first word and in the proper names, without ending point.

The measurements of the tables must not exceed 8 cm wide by 10.5 cm high.

Figures

Figures, diagrams, drawings, graphs, schemes, flowcharts, maps and organizational charts are obeyed in the same guidelines of tables, except for the location of the title, which is at the bottom and with the end-point. Below the title should be cited the source, if the figure has already been published, with a smaller font size than the text and end-point.

HIERARCHY OF TITLES AND SUBTITLES (NOT NUMBERED)

Capitalized titles should be bold and centralized

Subtitle should be bold and left justified

Sub subtitle should be non-bold and justified left

References

Set of elements, in own list, that allows the identification of publications, in whole or in part, as author, title, edition, place, publisher, date of publication, number of pages etc. This list must obey the unique alphabetical order of the author's surname.
